

ANTONIO BONIOLO

- Place & Date of Birth Venice (Italy) January 4th, 1951
- Education University Degree in Chemistry, University of Padua, Institute of Organic Chemistry, 1974.
- Professional Career
- 1975 – 1977: Assistant Professor at University of Padua, Dept. of Agriculture, involved in designing bioassays and radioimmunoassays for plant hormones in various plant tissues and extracts.
 - 1977 – 1978: Research Chemist at Fiat Bioengineering Sector, Sorin Biomedica - Diagnostics Division, develops commercial radioimmunoassay kits for human hormones
 - 1978 – 1983: Head of Enzymology Research Group at Sorin Biomedica Diagnostics Division, develops enzyme-immunoassays and extracorporeal detoxification devices based on enzyme-activated artificial kidney membranes.
 - 1983 – 1986: Director of Central Research Department of Sorin Biomedica, promotes the application of emerging biotechnologies such as monoclonal antibodies and solid-phase bioactive immobilization of enzymes and antibodies to in vitro diagnostic assays.
 - 1986 – 1993: Vice President, Head of Sorin Biomedica Diagnostics Division.
 - 1993 – 1997: Corporate Vice President of Sorin Biomedica, Head of Diagnostics Business Unit.
 - 1997: President of Sorin Diagnostics Srl, sells the company to American Standard Companies, (Piscataway, N.J., USA).
 - 1997 – 1999: Vice President Product Development of American Standard's Medical System Group
 - 1999 – 2000: Business Leader of the European activities of American Standard's Medical System Group and Chief Executive Officer of the Italian Company DiaSorin Srl, successor Company of Sorin Diagnostics Srl
 - 2000 – 2006: Partner in the MBO of DiaSorin from American Standard & CEO of DiaSorin Srl and DiaSorin SpA
 - 2007 – 2011: Deputy Chairman, DiaSorin SpA