Carrot Soup with Coriander

Serves 4; 3/4 cup per serving

Ingredients

- 2 teaspoons olive oil
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 2 medium garlic cloves, chopped
- 1 tablespoon ground coriander and 1/8 teaspoon ground coriander, divided use
- 1 pound carrots, cut into 1-inch pieces
- 2 1/2 cups water
- 1 cup fresh orange juice
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup fat-free sour cream
- 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh cilantro

Directions

In a large saucepan, heat the oil over medium-high heat, swirling to coat the bottom. Cook the onion and garlic for 3 to 4 minutes, or until soft, stirring occasionally.

Stir in 1 tablespoon coriander. Stir in the carrots, water, orange juice, and salt. Reduce the heat to medium and bring to a simmer. Reduce the heat to low and simmer, covered, for 15 to 20 minutes, or until the carrots are very tender.

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, whisk together the sour cream and remaining

1/8 teaspoon coriander. Set aside.

In a food processor or blender (vent the blender lid), process the soup in batches until smooth. Stir in the lemon juice.

Top each serving with a dollop of the sour cream mixture. Sprinkle with the cilantro.

In a large skillet, heat 1 teaspoon oil over medium heat, swirling to coat the bottom. Cook the green onions and garlic for 2 minutes, or just until tender, stirring occasionally. Transfer to a small plate. Set aside. Put the flour on a large plate. Dip one piece of chicken in the flour, turning to lightly coat and gently shaking off any excess. Transfer to a separate large plate. Repeat with the remaining chicken.

In the same skillet, heat the remaining 2 teaspoons oil, still over medium heat, swirling to coat the bottom. Cook the chicken with the smooth side down for 6 minutes. Turn over. Cook for 3 minutes, or until no longer pink in the center. Stir in the capers, broth, lemon juice, wine, sherry, and green onion mixture, scraping the skillet to dislodge any browned bits. Increase the heat to high and cook for 2 minutes, or until heated through. Stir in the pepper. Serve the chicken topped with the sauce and garnished with the lemon and parsley.

30 minutes, or until the potatoes are soft all the way through when tested with a knife. Using a slotted spoon, transfer the potatoes to a medium bowl and the garlic to a small plate, reserving the potato water.

Mash the garlic cloves. Add to the potatoes, combining lightly with a potato masher or large fork until coarse-textured. (Do not use a food processor.) Stir in the remaining ingredients, adding a little hot potato water if needed for the desired consistency. The texture should remain coarse.

Cook's Tip

For a taste change, substitute other fresh herbs for the rosemary and/or oregano. Parsley and sage are just two possibilities. This recipe doubles well.
